Convention News

The fourth annual convention of the Antique Doorknob Collectors of America will be held September 21, 22, and 23, 1984 at the Red Fox Inn, Waverly, Iowa.

Hosted by Arnie and Tedi Fredrick, the convention offers "More in Eighty-Four". We hope all members will attend.

Room rates at the Red Fox Inn are $34.00 single and $43.00 double occupancy. Each collector will be provided a 30" x 80" table in a large meeting room at no additional charge. Also, we will have the use of an executive suite all weekend as a central place to gather. Charles Wardell will again serve as Sargeant-at-Arms and will keep his "eagle eye" on the collections for security.

Dealers who are not ADCA members are welcome to attend and can rent a table for $25.00 per day. A professional auctioneer will donate his services for an auction scheduled for Friday evening. Items must be tagged and submitted to the "Auction Table" by 5:00 p.m. on Friday. The auction will be held from 8:00 - 10:00 p.m. While it is possible to sell 150-200 items during the scheduled time, it would help if small items are grouped together and sold as one lot. Bidding numbers, tags and further instructions will be available when you register. A 10% donation in lieu of a sales fee or a donation of proceeds from the sale of some items will be appreciated. Remember, donations are now tax deductible!

Many items from Pat Cody's large collection will be available for sale all day on Friday and any items not sold by 5:00 p.m. will be included in the auction.

Registration fee is $45/single or $75/couple, which includes two cocktail parties and two dinners and incidental expenses. Please note on the following schedule that the time has been extended through Sunday evening with displays open to the public on Sunday afternoon. A registration form is attached. Arnie will make motel reservations for you. For planning purposes, it will help if reservations are made not later than July 15.
