ARTICLE II - MEMBERS

Section 1. Class of Members. There shall be one class of members.

Section 2. Eligibility of Members. Anyone interested in antique doorknobs and related hardware is eligible to become a member with full voting rights and other privileges. In that event, each family member living at the same address and paying dues will be a member.

Section 3. Member Dues. The annual or lifetime dues required for membership shall be determined by the vote of the members. Dues may vary from year to year, but dues shall be the same for all members. Any member failing to pay dues within 90 days after November 1 of each year shall be automatically dropped from membership. (Amended September 12, 1989 to read as follows: Eliminate lifetime dues and change date to January 1. The annual dues required for membership shall be determined by the vote of the members. Dues may vary from year to year, but dues shall be the same for all members. Any member failing to pay dues within 90 day after January 1, of each year shall be automatically dropped from membership.)

Section 4. Annual Meeting. There shall be an annual meeting of members for the purpose of electing Directors and for the transacting of such other business as may come before the meeting, during the month of September of each year, unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors. Notice of the annual meeting, issued by the Secretary, shall be mailed to the last recorded address of each member at least 30 days before the time set for the annual meeting.

Section 5. Special Meeting. Special meetings of the members may be called by the President or by the Board of Directors. A special meeting of members may also be called by members having one-fourth (1/4 th) of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting. Notice of a special meeting, issued by the Secretary, shall be mailed to the last recorded address of each member at least 30 days before the time set for the special meeting. No business other than that specified in the notice of the special meeting shall be transacted.

Section 6. Quorum of Members. Members holding 10% of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter to be voted upon, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum.

2000 Convention Agenda

Section 7. Voting of Members. Each member shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter submitted to vote at a meeting of the members.

Section 8. Lifetime Member. Maudie Eastwood of Tillamook, Oregon, shall be granted a lifetime membership in Antique Doorknob Collectors of America in grateful appreciation for her many contributions to the art of collecting antique doorknobs.

ARTICLE III - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers. The business of affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation.

Section 2. Number and Election of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) members who shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members by a majority of the votes cast as such election. Such Directors shall hold office for one year and thereafter until their successors are elected and qualified. (Amended September 11, 1983 to read as follows: In addition to the seven(7) elected members, Maudie Eastwood shall be granted an emeritus position on the Board with voting rights and eligibility to hold office.) (Amended August 14, 1991 to read as follows: The Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) members who shall be elected every other year at the annual meeting of the members by a majority of the votes cast at such election. Such Directors shall hold office for two years and thereafter until their successors are elected and qualified. In addition to the seven elected members, Maudie Eastwood shall be granted an emeritus position on the Board with voting rights and eligibility to hold office.)

Section 3. Vacancies. If the office of any director shall become vacant between annual meetings by reason of death or resignation, a successor shall be appointed by the remaining members of the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy until the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors. A special meeting of members may be called to fill the vacancy if the Board of Director so desires.

Section 4. Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than this Bylaw immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of members.

Section 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chairman or any Director who may fix any place and time therefor. Notice thereof shall be given by personal notification to each Director.

If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified or until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. (Amended October 8, 1993 to read as follows: The officers of the corporation shall be elected every other year at the annual meeting of the members by a majority of the votes cast as such election. Such officers shall hold office for two years, and thereafter until their successors are elected and qualified. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.)

Section 3. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 4. The President. The President shall be the principal elective officer of the Corporation and subject to the control of the Board of Directors, shall supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the Corporation. The President shall make and sign all contracts and agreements in the name of this Corporation which are authorized by the Board of Directors unless the Bylaws provide that the Secretary shall also sign said documents.

Section 5. The Vice President. Thank you for attending this year's convention. See you in 2001!

"All doorknobs spread disease!", the clean-obsessed insist.

Yes, knobs rank really high on Lysol's Top Ten List.

Our members met those germs and caught the dread Knob Bug.

Now we have just one fear that there might be a drug

By Fauna, Warner LAMBERT, or Flora, Eli LILLY,

To heal our happy malady. (One some folk think is silly.)

Our doctors, Len and Dale, will never cure our ills.

They're knob collectors first. Comes second, pushing pills.

Oh, we who are afflicted, love knobs: Victorian brass,

Cast iron, porcelain, bronze, guttapercha, wood and glass.

Thank you, ADCA, for enabling our shared aches.

Here joined, we celebrate among Ten Thousand Lakes.

KEY FOUNDER,

In a serene setting

Waterway in the Park in Woodinville,

Washington, a wall
of memorial tiles
attracts the attention of passer-bys. The ambiance invites quiet reflection.

MEMORIAL TO ARNIE FREDRICK
KEY FOUNDER OF ADCA. D. 6-27-1995
BY MEMBER NO. 2 M.L.E., 1997

The significance of one particular tile, however, will be lost to the viewer with limited knowledge of ADCA lore. The title bears symbolism of this club and two key ADCA dates. The first, September 3, 1981, marks the beginning of the ADCA, and the second, June 27, 1995, the date of the untimely passing of key founder, Arnie Fredrick. The figure etched on the tile was reproduced from an original Arnie Fredrick doorknob design, and obviously holds significant value for this author.

Quiet reflection of a life that counted. A visionary who opened doors and changed lives by spearheading the founding of the Antique Doorknob Collectors of America. He then assured its continued success through vigilant oversight and guidance. Arnie Fredrick lives on in the collective hearts and memory of ADCA.
